

Jane Clark is Vice President, Member Services for NationalLease. In this position, she is focused on managing the Member Services operation, as well as working to strengthen member relationships, reduce member costs, and improve collaboration within the NationalLease supporting groups. She has the opportunity to travel around the U.S. and Canada in her role, visiting many of the over 1000 locations in the NationalLease network. Prior to joining NationalLease, Jane served as Area Vice President for Randstad, one of the world's largest recruitment agencies, and before that, she served in management posts with QPS Companies, Pro Staff, and Manpower, Inc. Jane received a B.A. degree in Communication from North Central College and an M.A. in Communication from Northern Illinois University. In her free time, Jane volunteers with the Girl Scouts, serves as Vice Chair of the DuPage Workforce Innovation Board, and sits on the North Central College Alumni Board. Jane lives in Glen Ellyn, where she enjoys walking and biking on the Prairie Path, shopping and dining in downtown Glen Ellyn, and taking the train into the city to concerts, plays, ballets, and Bears and Cubs games.
