

Pattie Barnes has Bachelor and Master degrees in piano performance from Wheaton College and Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. As Sanctuary Organist for First United Methodist Church, she led the church's Chancel Ringers to be featured twice in National Handbell of America events. She was the collaborative pianist at Glenbard West High School and Downers Grove North High School for 24 years. At the church she has been the collaborated pianist for hundreds of events, from cantatas to yearly talent presentations. Her passion for piano and organ literature shows in her weekly presentations on the church's seven-foot Steinway and the Phelps 39-rank pipe organ. She maintains a studio of many advancing piano students.
