

Adi Bawiskar, 16, is a sophomore at Naperville North High School. He began violin lessons with Janis Wittrig, and has continued to study with her for over nine years. A two-time All State musician, Adi was in the ILMEA Honors Orchestra in 2024 and served as the assistant concertmaster of the Honors Orchestra in 2025.

Adi is a first violinist for the Youth Symphony of DuPage Symphony Orchestra, and has won their 2025 Concerto Competition with the Barber Violin Concerto.

Adi enjoys playing chamber music during the summer as a member of the OPUS chamber music camp, where he has performed works of Debussy, Shostakovich, and more. He also serves as a member and soloist with the Naperville North High School Orchestra. Outside of music, Adi enjoys being a member of his school's math, science bowl, and volleyball teams, and is always learning to cook new recipes to expand his culinary repertoire.
