

Jeremy Liu, 14, is a 9th grader at Neuqua Valley High School in Naperville. He has been under the tutelage of Mrs. Sueanne Metz since the age of six.

Jeremy is the 2025 winner of the Crain-Maling Foundation CSO Young Artists Competition. As a result, he had the honor of performing with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra this past fall. He is also the recent first place winner of the Chicago International Music Competition as well as the Carmel Klavier International Competition. He made his Carnegie Hall debut at the age of 7. Since then, he has competed in various competitions. He is a four-time winner of the Illinois State Music Teachers Association (ISMTA) Competition and a three-time winner of the MTNA (Junior Division of Illinois) in 2022, 2023 and 2025. He is also a three-time first winner of the Sejong Music Competition. Additionally, he has earned first prizes in prestigious competitions such as the Walgreens National Concerto Competition, the O' Malley Foundation National Concerto Competition, the Chicago International Music Competition, the Carmel Klavier International Competition. In the summer of 2023, he had the honor of performing with an orchestra in Perugia, Italy.

Jeremy is a co-director of '88Keys to Cure', a non profit organization that aims to bring hope and inspiration to local communities and hospitals through donations raised.